

The Student has a right to appeal the warning. If they do, they must follow appeal procedures (SSDEP Section D). If the Student does not file an appeal, the issue is considered resolved. If the Student does file an appeal, proceed to Column 5.

The FDC reviews all documentation. If the FDC, by a quorum majority vote, does not deem a hearing necessary, proceed to 4e. If the FDC believes the Student must be temporarily removed from their course(s) and/or field work, they will, upon a quorum majority vote, immediately remove the student, pending a hearing, and contact relevant parties, including the Student, in accordance with SSDEP III.C(ii).10. If the FDC, by a quorum majority vote, deems a hearing necessary, proceed to 3g.

Within 10-14 working days after the hearing, the FDC Chair will issue a written decision to the Student. A copy will be sent to the Student, the Seidel Dean,
